CLAM DIGGER

Arnold Samuels

Was presented with the

Amethyst Award

On a regular basis Arnold brings in a Tall Elks coin filled with quarters. Because of his dedication to this charity he has donated more than $5,000 earning him the Amethyst Award.

Thank you for your unwavering generosity to the Tall Elks Program. You are an example of what it means to be an Elk.

EXALTED RULER – RON DEVORE

This will be my last Clamdigger article. I want to thank lodge members for their support since last April. Shortly after taking the E.R. position, our district deputy sat down with me and asked what I wanted to accomplish during the year. My answer was a simple one. I wanted to leave the lodge in better financial condition than when I started. As of this writing, it is my belief that that has been accomplished. One of you suggested that I take credit for the improved appearance of the lodge. The E.R. really can't do that. The Board of Directors is holder of the purse strings and responsible for approving all lodge improvements. The E.R. is just one vote.

Saturday, March 11 I will be hosting the Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. This lodge and events run on volunteers. It is my pleasure to prepare this dinner.

Thanks to all of you for your kind encouragement in the past year. Thanks, and best of luck to the officers moving up in the chairs and new ones coming aboard. I know they will do an outstanding job.

ESTEEMED LOYAL KNIGHT - NANCY OAKES

March is here!! One of our most important dinners of the year takes place this month ...Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. As we have all said, all year, we would not have a Lodge without our volunteers, and on March 11th, we will say Thank You. So, please attend this dinner and applaud yourself and your fellow volunteers.

This month we also initiate our officers and board for the 2017-2018 year. I am honored once again to be an officer, and this year I will be the Lecturing Knight. Big responsibilities and big shoes to follow in this chair, but I shall revel in the experience. And, we have a landmark year in that all the Knights and the Exalted Ruler will be women!!!! What an honor!

This initiation will usher in a very active year. Our Exalted Ruler, Karen Woodbeck, has set the mark quite high for all the Knights and we look forward to presenting many events, some annual and some new events. Please let this be the year that you choose to give back to the Lodge via your time by assisting us with this ambitious calendar. Without these events, we have very little income, and as you have seen from our budgets, it takes thousands of dollars to keep our doors open every month.

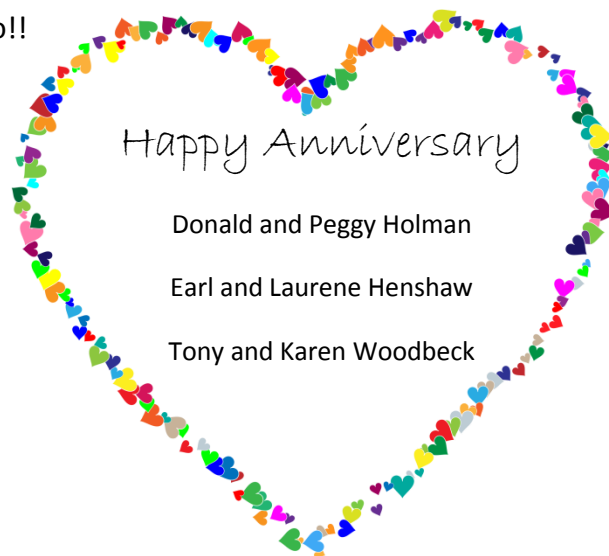

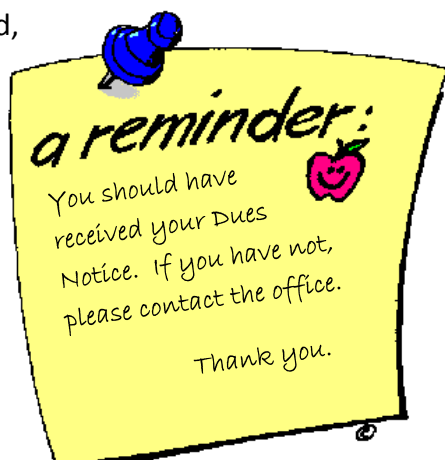

A couple of things I would like you to put on your May calendar..... first up is May 6th, a Sip and Paint Party hosted by Judy Horn. This will be such a fun event! We only have 22 spots available for this first Sip and Paint and we ask that you make your reservations early. Details will be posted in two weeks. The cost will be $30.00 per person and that will include all your supplies. Judy Horn, as most of you know, is a local artist/celebrity and art's supporter. She is a brilliant artist, and we look forward to this Sip and Paint being the first of several such events.

The second date to circle is May 27th. This will be the Lodge Flea Market/Garage Sale. We will have individual spaces to rent in the parking lot and the cabana for you to sell all those items that are taking up space in your garage and closets. This is sure to be a well-attended sale, and we will be posting the details the first of April so that you may reserve your spot.

Well, new Lodge year, new officers, new events.....here we go!!

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Oakes

ESTEEMED LECTURING KNIGHT - VICKY ROBERTS

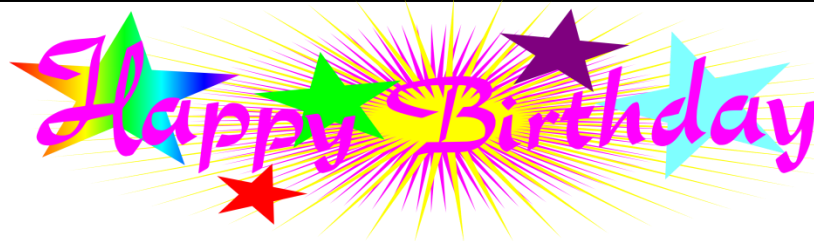

Spring is just around the corner and we have a lot of improvements going on in and outside of the lodge. We are installing a new dishwasher in the bar area and also replacing the flooring. Our fire door leading from the kitchen has also been replaced and we are continuing to improve the inside appearance of the lodge by cleaning up clutter and adding a few minor details that really make me feel very proud of the membership and our Ocean Shores lodge. Also, we are working on a huge outdoor project – our RV park upgrade. I wanted to personally thank the members who are working extremely hard behind the scenes to make this project happen. From the initial drawings, to coordinating the project in detail, to scheduling the work that has to be done in sequence. Once this is completed, we will have an RV park that our Elk members can be very proud of now and for many years to come. Work begins as early as March 1, 2017!

As we continue to move forward in our endeavors, I sincerely hope that you will take time to come down and support the lodge by becoming involved in upcoming activities and stopping down to enjoy the delicious meals that our chefs always provide. They work extremely hard to provide meals at a good price that helps support our lodge and the many activities that we are scheduling for your enjoyment.

Thank you again for allowing me to continue on my Elk journey with all of you. It has been and will always will be my honor to serve you and the lodge now and in the future.

God, Bless You Always,

Vicky Roberts, Lecturing Knight
